1. [Algiers] 1940s Mustapha Supérieur Hotel Algieres North Africa Luggage Label.

A dramatic label, featuring an elephant, from the French Occupation period. 4.5"x3.25". Minor soil. [46116] $15

2. [Algiers] 19th Century French Marine Passenger Service to Algiers Folder.

An attractive folding card promoting the Compagnie de Navigation Mixte packet boat service from Marseille to Algiers, Oran, and several other North African ports. The card features a dramatic illustration of an early steamship chugging through Mediterranean waters. Folding card. 6"x4". Minor soil, light wear. [46756] $75

3. [Bermuda] Bermuda Tour Folder.

December 1928 & February 1929- Elliot Tours, Talladega, Alabama. An attractive folder promoting a December 25, 1928 and February, 1929 voyage to Bermuda, organised by Elliot Tours of Talladega, Alabama. The tour was limited to 20 people, at $160-$175 each. 3.5"x6". Minor soil. [42974] $15

4. [Bible Hotel] 1902 Amsterdam Holland Bible Hotel Illustrated Trade Card.

A very handsomely printed card for an aptly-named hotel. The hotel featured electric lights, an elevator, baths; a room with a candle and an attendant could be had for only 2 florins. The attendant presumably lit the candle. 5.5"x3.5". Minor soil, light wear. [46114] $25

5. [Boston] 1880s United States Hotel -Boston Chromolithographic Trade Card.

A handsome trade card for Boston's famous United States Hotel which widely respected hotelier and theater-owner Tilly Haynes took charge of in 1880 as a reclamation project and completely refurbished and renewed. As evidence of its rebuilt respectability, the card notes, "Pleasure Parties - Headquarters for Ladies and Families". 5.5"x3.5". Minor soil, light wear. [44595] $275

6. [Cannes Playground] 1920s Cannes France Pyjama-Playground Promotional Card.

An interesting promotional card for the Pyjama-Playground at Cannes, France, featuring a rather defiant young Frenchman on the front and three more images of the goings on at this popular beach resort on the back. The activities appear to have included boys boxing, kids kayaking, and a full-grown man sitting on an enormous beach ball waving a sombrero. Good times. 2.75"x4.25". Minor soil. [45687] $25

7. [Carriage Tours] 1913 Western Tourist in Carriage with Elaborate Islamic Tile Building Snapshot.

A nice image with a frustratingly illegible word on the back which undoubtedly is the place name- but if you can make it out you're way ahead of me, and I worked at it for a good 15 minutes. Snapshot. 6"x3.5". Minor soil, some wear, corner creases. [47966] $15

8. [Colorado] 1906 Colorado Grand Tour Scrapbook / Photo Album.

Our wanderers were in Colorado for the Beta Theta Pi Annual Convention in Denver, and took advantage to take trips to Pike's peak and other points of remoteness and scenery. The album is a carefully-choreographed assemblage of original snapshots, cut-out pieces from tour guides, and travel memorabilia. Paper covers, 11"x9.5", 16 leaves, all with photos and other material pasted to one side. Some minor cover soil. [47621] $150

9. [Exotic Shopping] 1900s European Woman Shopping at a Middle Eastern Bazaar Mounted Photo.

An interesting image of an older, stout, very well-dressed woman shopping at a Middle Eastern street bazaar. Mounted photo. 5.75"x4.25" [mount], 4.25"x2.5" [image]. Minor soil, light wear. [45734] $35

10. [Golf] Vintage Golf View Hotel - Nairn Scotland Label.

Many people in Scotland play golf, this hotel is just for viewing golf. 5.25"x3.75". Near fine. {48176} $20

11. [Japan] Kanaya Hotel in Nikko Japan Pictorial Luggage Tag.

A striking luggage tag for the Nikko Kanaya Hotel, probably late 1920s or early 1930s. A Japanese history website explains- "In 1870, Dr. James C. Hepburn, an American medical missionary, visited Nikko and stayed at the house of Zenichiro Kanaya. Foreseeing an increase in the number of foreign tourists to Nikko, Dr. Hepburn suggested that Kanaya open a hotel for foreigners. Following Hepburn's advice, Zenichiro remodeled his house and opened "Kanaya Cottage Inn" in 1873. In 1893, Zenichiro relocated his business and opened "Kanaya Hotel" on the top of the hill that overlooks the River Daiya. It was Japan's first full-fledged western-style hotel and has been in operation at the same place to date". 3.5"x3". Minor wear, light soil. {49398} $35

12. [Nudist Holiday] 1920s English Nudist / Nudist Luxury Holiday Manor Brochure.

An interesting booklet promoting the “Manor House” Club, “Luxury Holiday Club for the Nudist - Naturism in perfect comfort”, at Clifford Manor, “near Newent”, Gloucestershire. The club’s amenities included bedrooms “fitted with hot and cold running water”, a ballroom/game room, small library, and “the whole house is centrally heated which makes indoor nudism possible throughout the year”. The club also provided a separate area for children with toys and “staff available to supervise”. For guests who felt like doing more than sunbathing, there were formal gardens to roam, a tennis court, outdoor pool, “facilities for badminton, tenniquoits and other outdoor sports”, and a “lovely surrounding countryside provides ideal walks”. The only possible downside is this bit of bad news for the pet-loving nudist- “We regret that we find it impossible to allow guests to bring dogs”. The less said about that the better. Perhaps unsurprisingly the full membership rate for gentlemen was 3 guineas, but for “single ladies” it was one guinea. With- a single sheet insert offering the “Club Taxi” for those wishing to be picked up at the train station or not to walk to town. 8”x5”, 10 pages, black & white illustrations, plus a single sheet insert. Minor wear, light soil, folded. [44154] $125

13. [Ocean Vacations] 1950s Ocean Liner United States Lines Stationery & Envelopes & Postcards.

The United States Lines operated the famous S.S. United States and her sister ship, the S.S. America in the brief revival enjoyed by the Transatlantic ocean liner service after World War 2 before it succumbed to air travel and the vicissitudes of Reality. This lot consists of: 1 piece of stationery & matching envelope; 1 piece of Air Mail stationery & matching envelope; 2 different postcards. Minor soil, light wear. These items have been stored for the last 60 years or so in an envelope with a bar of the United States Lines floral bathroom soap; the soap bar pretty much disintegrated when we took it out, but the aroma lingers. If having the stationery smell of the official ocean liner soap seems cool to you, that's great. If it does not seem cool to you we apologize, but I don't think there's much that can be done about it at this point, so be aware. {49760} $25

15. [Pisa] 19th Century Hotel Washington, Pisa, Italy Folding Card.

An interesting English/French folding card for the Hotel Washington in Pisa, Italy, featuring a pen and ink drawing of the unhappiest Washington you're ever likely to see. The hotel was quite the place though, they had a restaurant, a "large garden", moderate charges, and "electric light and heating in every room". The card unfolds to reveal a street map of downtown Pisa. Folding card. 5.25"x3.5". Some soil and minor wear. [44496] $25

17. [Switzerland in Switzerland]
19th Century Swiss Hotel & Pension Wyder Interlaken
Card.

A handsome card showing handsome hotel with "a magnificent view of the Alps". Because who wouldn't rather sit in the hotel sipping hot chocolate and viewing the Alps than actually climbing them? We're not stupid. Or particularly adventurous. A good view is just fine, thank you. 5"x3.25". Minor soil, light wear. {48894} $35

18. [Student Travel] 1959 German Student Travel Service Traveling in Europe Booklet.

A comprehensive price guide to student travels on airlines, trains, and boats to and from, and within, Europe. Softcover. 6"x8.5", 26 pages. Some soil, minor wear. Slight travel locker odor. [47002] $20

19. [Tahiti] 1950s French Par Avion Tahiti Promotional Air Mail Envelope.

An attractive unused French Air Mail envelope promoting Tahiti, with a trio of islanders hurling spears on the beach, which is not at all Colonialist... 6.25"x4.5". Minor soil, light wear. [44891] $20

20. [White Mountains] 19th Century Twin River House White Mountains Hotel Chromolithographed Trade Card.

An absolutely lovely Aesthetic Movement-inspired trade card for a White Mountains hotel/resort, "Phillips & Willoughby, Proprietors". We've not been able to unearth any information, good, bad, or scandalous about Messrs. Phillips & Willoughby or their hotel or resort, but the White Mountains were more or less teeming with them in those days, so if you didn't have a murder or mayhem you were unlikely to make the papers. The Twin River House apparently had no murder or mayhem, but what they did have was an exceptionally lovely chromolithographed business card. 3.75"x2.5". Minor soil, light wear. {48961} $50

That's All, Folks!
